Structure and Goals of the Young Playwrights
Institute:

Enrollment of six young people, ages 13 – 18 years.

Enrollment Fee: $ 100 per student for the six week
workshop.

First come, first served for the maximum enrollment of six (6) students.

Instructor playwright Tom Moran will teach the fundamentals of script writing for the stage, providing individual coaching. The students will each create a ten-minute, original play. Participating students will have the opportunity to voice each other's dialogue
during the writing process.

Tom Moran, Master Playwright

Tom Moran has had his plays produced 28 times in 17 different cities in 12 states. Major Alaska productions include Boundary at the Perseverance Theater Second Stage in Juneau; The Big Guy at Anchorage Community Theater; and Date With History right here at Fairbanks Drama Association. Other productions include Back to Normal by the Eden Prairie (MN) Players, the Edgmar Center for the Arts (Santa Monica, CA), Theatre Three (Port Jefferson, NY), and the UAF Student Drama Association, and Duo by Short Attention Span Theater (Anchorage), 10x10 in the Triangle (Carrboro, NC), the Salt City (UT) Artist's League, Insurgo Theater (Las Vegas, NV), and Stone Soup (Seattle, WA). Duo, about bickering superheroes, was also published in "The Best 10-minute Plays 2012" by Smith & Kraus. Tom's also been a seven-time selection for the Last Frontier Theater Conference in Valdez and has been selected for the Fairbanks Drama Association's and Looking Glass Group Theatre's 8x10 Festival 12 times.

Tom holds a bachelor's in English from the University of Notre Dame and a master's in Creative Writing from UAF, and has resided in Fairbanks since 2000. When Tom's not writing he works at a science organization at UAF, and when he's not doing that he does foolhardy things with bicycles, packrafts and skis.
